

A Correspondent

Chittagong: Police arrested Chittagong city Jamaat-e-Islami ameer ANM Shamsul Islam again immediately after his release from Chittagong central jail on Wednesday.

Chittagong additional police super (South) Mostafizur Rahman said the prison authorities freed Jamaat ameer Shamsul Islam from the Chittagong jail around 10:30 am on bail in two cases, including Jubo League activist Alamgir killing.

A police team of Lohagara police station arrested Shamsul Islam from the jail gate soon after he was released on bail granted by the High Court.

The Jamaat leader was again arrested in two other cases filed with Lohagara police station on charges of vandalizing Chumuti police camp in the upazila and torching a petrol pump during the January 5 general election, said additional police super Mostafizur Rahman.

On May 21, police arrested 21 Jamaat leaders, including Shamsul Islam, from Dewanbazar party office in the port city.