Chandpur: An elderly woman on Sunday filed a case with a local court against her two sons and two daughters-in-law on different charges, including torture.

Taking cognisance of the complaint filed by Amena Begum, wife of Malek Gazi of Moushadi village in Sadar upazila, Judge Asim Kumar Dey of the Senior Judicial Magistrate Court summoned the four to appear before it on September 11.

The accused are Amena's sons Sultan Gazi and Sharif Gazi, Sultan's wife Sumi Begum and Sharif's wife Shefali Begum.

As per the case statement, drug addict Sultan and Sharif used to torture their father Malek Gazi, 62, and mother Amena Begum on different excuses in stead of providing money for their livelihood.

The cruel sons allegedly involved in drug peddling also threatened to force their parents out of home.
