

Dhaka: Pickets torched a bus in the capital's Shyampur during the first phase of the countrywide 72-hour hartal enforced by Jamaat-e-Islami. No casualty was reported in the incident. The Dhaka-bound bus of 'Borak Paribahan' was set aflame at about 2:00pm at Ali Bohor while it was coming from Narayanganj's Panchbati, said fire service officials. Later, fire fighters from the local fire station doused the fire. Jamaat enforced the shutdown protesting at the death sentence awarded to its chief Motiur Rahman Nizami for his crimes against humanity during the Liberation War in 1971
