The Anti Corruption Commission (ACC) will interrogate former State Minister for Water Resources Mahbubur Rahman's wife today in connection with illegal wealth accumulation. On Wednesday, the ACC served a notice upon Priti Haider, wife of Mahbubur Rahman, asking her to be present at the ACC head office on Thursday at 10 am, ACC public relations officer Pranab Kumar Bhattacharya told UNB.

On August 21 last, the ACC sued Mahbub for reportedly acquiring illegal wealth. According to the first information report (FIR), Mahbub acquired movable and immovable wealth worth about Tk 5.2 crore.

He also concealed information about wealth worth about Tk 1.25 crore in his wealth statement. He submitted his wealth account to the Commission on April 3, 2014 mentioning his wealth worth Tk 5,85,00,512.

During the ACC inquiry, it was found that he amassed huge wealth illegally during 2009-2013.
