

A Correspondent

London: Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, who arrived here on Monday on a three-day official tour, had talks with her British counterpart David William Donald Cameron at 10 Downing Street on Tuesday.

On her arrival at the 10 Downing Street around 8:30 am (local time), Cameron received Hasina outside his office and then proceeded into it together. The meeting lasted for about half an hour. Both the leaders at the meeting discussed various issues of bilateral interest.

The Bangladesh Prime Minister is visiting the UK at the invitation of her British counterpart David Cameron and Unicef Executive Director Anthony Lake.